

LIFE / NEIGHBORHOODS / CHARITY & VOLUNTEERISM

Girls' Night Out at Jimmy Choo for the American Red Cross

February 11, 2015

6:47 PM MST

33rd Annual

American Red Cross Ball

Presented by

American Red Cross of South Florida
American Red Cross of South Florida

On Thursday, February 19, join the girls at Jimmy Choo of Merrick Park for a special Girls' Night Out hosted by the American Red Cross of South Florida. Attendees will enjoy an evening of cocktails and hors d'oeuvres as they shop for accessories to wear to the region's 33rd Annual American Red Cross Ball.

The event will be hosted by Eilah Campbell-Beavers, member of the Red Cross Ball Committee, and Vivian De las Cuevas-Diaz, American Red Cross of South Florida board member.

A portion of the proceeds from the evening's sales will support the American Red Cross' local and national work in its five key service areas: (i) disaster relief; (ii) lifesaving blood; (iii) health and safety services; (iv) supporting America's military families; and (v) international services.

The American Red Cross of South Florida serves more than 4.4 million residents throughout Broward, Miami-Dade and Monroe counties. Its annual ball is one of South Florida's preeminent social fundraising events and is attended by more than 500 of the community's prominent leaders. The 2015 Ball is presented by FPL and chaired by Marile and Jorge Luis Lopez.

For more information about the 33rd Annual American Red Cross Ball, contact Kenia Tedesco at (305) 728-2512 or Kenia.Tedesco@redcross.org.

WHEN: Thursday, February 19, 2015; 6 - 9 p.m.

WHERE: Jimmy Choo, Village of Merrick Park; 360 San Lorenzo Avenue, Coral Gables, FL 33146; Ph. (305) 443-6124

SUGGESTED LINKS

- Support Feeding South Florida™ at the March Against Hunger 5K Walk/Run
- Valentine's Day promo for tix to 2015 Miami Youth Fair
- Recap: BrazilFoundation hosts IV Gala Miami

Rebecca Richards

Miami Charity & Volunteerism Examiner